CHRONCLE LEWISBURG

H. C. HICKOK. Editor. O. N. WORDEN, Printer. LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., MAY 22, 1850.

Volume VII. Number 8. Whole Number ... 320.

The Lewisburg Chronicle is issued county, Pennsylvania. Trans.-$1.50 per year, for cash actually in advance; $1,75, paid within three months; $2 if paid within the year; $2,50 if not paid before for when handed in or delivered.

addressed to the Publisher.

O. N. WORDEN, Printer and Publisher,

TOR THE LEWISHING CHRONICLS. "No Cross, no Crown.""

Our Savier's Cross! exect, mournful theme-"A table in the Jows' esteem. And scandel to the learned Greek." Who sours its sacred lessons meek. They in dark, hopeless graves fie down -The Cross has life-townis a crown.

Our being's day may have its pains, Earth's slaves may hug their gilded chains ; But 'et the thought each sorrow drawn-This heavy Cross insures the crown-

The virtues of the H siv. Just. Provoked the worth of Sense and Lusi; I care not for the worldling's frown-He knows no Cross, he'll know no crown.

The story of the Cross shall sound From sea to be the earth around, He beard from North to Southern Pole. Where islands sleep or rivers roll-Echoed in country and in town-" Take up the Cross and wear the crown."

Let others chase the buildle Fame, Win Warriors' or the Statesman's name-Let me prefer, to Time's renewn. The Cross on earth-in heaven the crown

Let children play with Folly's toys, And count them soul sufficing joys; He thou a man, and not a close-Take moments' Cross, and endiess crown

Let those who will, choose Wealth and Page, And study, Passions vile to please-They, silken robes and beds of down; We, rugged Cross and starry crown.

Sincere must be the heart that serks, And pure the lips the Lone that speaks-Not mitted head nor priestly gown

"T is not the form that God observes. The spirit's wish His purpose serves ; T' obey His Lace of Truth and Love Will raise us to His courts above, Where sain's redeemed with songs surround Earth's Crucified in glory crowned! Lewisburg, May 12, 1850.

" All de Resolutions."

lutions were passed:

"1. We will all give something.

"3. We will all give willingly."

negro took his seat at the table in order to from one hand to the other several times, a run, and did not feel the old string cut mark down the sum each came forward to he was compelled to stop at the distance his fingers till he reached the third corner, give. A large number came and laid of a square, and rest. Setting down the where he had resolved upon returning to their contributions upon the table, some oil, and seating himself upon a step, he the store. more, some less. Among the number took out his supposed quarters of a dollar to During thirty-five years that he lived who came up, was a rich old colored man, convince himself there was one too many, after this event, he never forgot the lesson as rich as all the others put together, who But although he congratulated himself on it taught him; and throughout his life, in threw them down on the table a small his good fortune, John's heart was not at private business, and in public office, he silver coin. "Take dat back agin," said case. He knew that he should have re- ever acted under the firm conviction that the African receiver of the money seated turned one of the pieces to Mr. W., the "honesty is the best policy." at the table, " dat may be accordin' to de storekeeper; that in keeping it he was actfirst resolution, but not accordin' to de ing dishonestly; and that he ought still to second." The rich old man accordingly return back, and correct the mistake. But took it up, and hobbled back to his seat in cupidity was as busy as conscience, and a great rage. One after another came soon framed a number of good reasons Robert Hall held a similar opinion, for when again answered, " No, dat don't do yet. sides, it was too late now to return. If he It may be accordin' to de first and second did, he should probably be censured for Still annoyed at himself and all around brother. How strangely people will bat. there's a fool coming!" him, he sat a long time, till nearly all ance the account of their sins by making were gone, and then can e to the table, and the omission of one, to atone for the com- States, 119 Colleges, the oldest of which with a pleasant countance, (the man was mission of another! John entirely convinced is the Harvard University, at Cambridge, for-nothing man, you've been bidding a Christian) willingly gave a large sum himself that he would be wronging Mass, established in 1638. The next against your wife! Oh, you impudence! late tornado. If this be the means of preto the treasurer. The receiver, as he his brother of his valuable time, by marked down the amount, exclaimed, returning to rectify so trifling a mis-"Well den, dat am accordin' to all de take!

resolutions /"

boy the other day tauntingly to his com- on his way, determined to keep the money, panion. The addressed turned proudly but by no means satisfied that he was do-inclined to tell him that he can not afford nian government has taken up the scheme in his countenance, cooly answered, "So time to a stand. Rest relieved the smartvas Franklin."

THE FOUR PISTAREENS.

[From a School Periodical by T. D. James, Philadelphia.]

to the importance of small things when he had obeyed his first honest impulse. There here once were also ocas; and we scriptions for six months or less to be paid to great principles are involved, the following He felt very unbappy. But he must not advance. Discontinuances optional with the story of "The Four Pistarcens" may delay. He had already been a good while Tax ours to show what been inset free, can be advanced by the story of the Four Pistarcens may delay. Putlisher except when the year is paid up.

Advertisements handsomely inserted at 50 cts prive interesting and profitable. It was per square one week, $1 for a month, and $5 for told to me by the person of whom the anti a year; a reduced price for longer advertisements.

Two squares, $7; Mercanoile advertisements not

Two squares, $7; Mercanoile advertisements not exceeding one-fourth of a column, quarterly, $10. a most excellent man; and a Christian in determined—to go back. Casual advertisements and Job work to be paid heart and life. He was remarkable for lt was a hard task to trudge back three Toat glowed with light from mind's unclouded t when handed in or delivered.

All communications by mail must come post. has integrity. I have frequently known long squares, with a heavy jeg without a ob, that great MILTON'S mental mantle might paid accompanied by the address of the writer, to hun to suffer losses in his business, rather handle; and more than once, he had alreceive attention. Those relating exclusively to than take those advantages which the law most determined to give up his honest res-HICKOK, Esq., Editor-and all on business to be allows, and which public opinion does not olution. But he persevered, reached the bessed to the Publisher.

Office Market St. between Second and Third condemn, but which an apright man will store, and set down his load. "You have the fame is also ours. And o that men of his honesty of principle and practice, to senting the four pistareeus to Mr. W.; the event I am about to relate.

half gallon of oil. He had frequently price on the present occasion was only 20 not understand him, he repeated the ques. They had not sent him," (thus the Prelates reason do to him; and that it was as dishonest to take advantage of another's mistake to me advise you always to deal as honestly. When Transy and Freedom measured swords take what was not his own, as to cheat in as you have to-day." what was not his own, as to cheat in as you have to-day."

Who can imagine the feelings of the Grew great and glorious. Thy simple name boy, when he saw the real state of the Sufficed to keep a turbulent world in awe; man; but before he had time to carry out matter; and knew, in an instant, that, And people great and small securely dwelt curred to him, that he would give three of must, from the very nature of the circumthem to his brother, as the right change, stances, have been discovered! "Had I and keep the fourth for himself. He closed carried out my first intentions," said he to Immertal memories sanetify thy grave. his hand upon the money, picked up his me, when he related the anecdote, "I jug, and left the store. He stopped, how- should have handed my brother three of ever, upon the step, and looked at his the pistarceus. He would of course have money. There were certainly four, and asked for the balance, and I should have *An old English work, recently receited by Box. Wm | be should have but three. Conscience be- been drawn to add falsehood to my crime, gan to reprove him, but selfishness claimed by saying that was all he gave me. In all the fourth as its own. The latter pleaded probability I should have been detected, Not long since, a Missionary Meeting the hardest; and fearing lest the druggist and sent back to my father in disgrace. It was held among the Negroes in the West should discover his mistake and recall him, would have stamped my character with Indies, at which the three following reso- he hurried off homeward, thinking of his dishonesty, from which I might never

"2. We will give as God has enabled us. no handle, and John was forced to carry step proceeded up the street. He was so it by a string tied around his neck. This rejoiced at the happy result, and so thank-At the close of the meeting, a leading so cut his fingers, that after changing it ful for his preservation, that he set out on

He proceeded on his way-but by the Who wishes to know how to give and time he reached the second corner, his of volumes in the Libraries of all these be happy ? Let him follow the example conscience (as well as his jug) began to be of the above rich old African. - Commiss- very heavy again. He again sat down to rest, and to settle his dispute between his "O, you're a'prentice ?" said a little principles and his desires; and again went conscience were not so easily pulliated. He meditated some minutes. Conscience now became urgent in its demands. But To awaken the attention of my scholars he was ashamed to go back. He wished It at becomes the Britons us to mock.

ings of his hands, but the cuttings of his eat bread .- [Gospel Banner.

despise; and he attributed a great share given me too much change," said he, pre-" you have given me four quarter dollars, They promised twenty) pounds for his great Poem. When John was about thirteen years instead of three." " And how far had old, he left his paternal roof in the north you got before you discovered the mistake?" of New Jersey, and came to Philadelphin said Mr. W. This was a stumper; for But till they've come to Heaven no one seems to know to learn a traile. He entered as an appronthe extra a trade. He entered as an approach that the drug- life canonics John BENYAN. (But, independent that the drug- life anomics John BENYAN. (But, independent that the drugnorthern part of the city. On a certain gist was acquainted with the whole circumoccasion he was sent to a drug store, for a stance. But such was not the fact. Mr. And so the Tinker may content himself W. knew that from the time John had Beside John Milton). Twelve full years was he, been sent on a similar errand, and had been been gone, he must have got to some dis- A guilties prisoner, held in Belieut Juit; accustomed to pay 25 cents for the oil. tance, and he wished to know how far. Mantile he have the wrath of Bigotry.

And, comparison by his doughter—blind and pole—that as they enlarged their balloon's their D-o-u-g-h—Duff, ha ?

The North Property of the control of the contr But it happened that oil had fallen, and the Supposing, from his silence, that he did "Twas not to be endured that he should preachprice on the present occasion was only 20 to a understand that, he repeated the ques-cents, of which, however, he was not in- tion in another shape: "I say how far, And strange (would be to be a Tinker teach." formed. He had taken with him to pay my boy, have you been since you were for the oil a one dollar note, and having here?" John recovered from his embar. To had to hinter buter thoughts from risingobtained the article, he presented the note, rassment. "To Callowhill street, sir." I read the cruelties of those mitred men and reserved in change -not as he expect- "You think there is a quarter too much, do Who seem t have thought that man another mate ed, three quarters of a dottar, but four pis- you! well you may have that for your nat BUNYAN was beyond their powers in fareens. It may be necessary to remark, honesty." John thanked him, and put. Nor bars could hand the unmortal thoughts and were that the pistar on was an old Spanish coin, ting the pistarcens into his pocket, without the stands above in his pocular glory. of the value of 20 cents, which was in excepting the joke, he resumed his burthen, susjecting the joke, he resumed his burthen, the shade after the power of the Resum of Allegery.

Sole Sovereign of the power three hundred feet high, the plant. No lath, then it Ploe, the disc. and two nights of incressant toil, engaged such that the remaining the power is the power of the Resum of Allegery.

Sole Sovereign of the Resum of Allegery.

Sole Sovereign of the power is the power in the power is the power in t the present day they are but rarely meet had filled his bosom half an hour before. On us the retiance of his brilliant fairwith, and my young readers may never As he was about leaving the store, "Stop, Whatpleasantaleep sastis that had such glorious drea have seen them. John, who had never my man," said Mr. W., "I will not de- Thou too stand up Notifi caouwetts Take thy place Marquis d'Arlandes, made the first free as- is Plow. been much frombled with money changing, ceive you. You have your right change. Among the country's mightiest; for thou wert the sturdy changing of the sturdy changing race; and was ignorant of their value, supposed. The mil is twenty cents, and those four. And thou dids battle een to thine own hurt they were quarters of a dollar, and that the pieces are not quarter dollars, they are for man and trath and first. They dandered the they were quarters of a dollar, and that the pieces are not quarter dollars, they are the minima of the Second Charles. The dirt druggest had given him four instead of twenty cent pieces." "Here is a quarter." of slander new is dried, and verily. three. He had been thught when a child, continued the benevolent store-keeper. Like good old Bunyan's "Digrim," thou art girl to be housest. He knew that he ought to taking one from his drawer, which I will And thy true cousin HAMPDEN seemed to how do to others as he would have others to give you. You can notice the difference Before the pride of Prelates, King, and Lords. do to him; and that it was as dishonest between them, as you go home; and let Humanity arose in arms; and dire-have recovered." As it was, he picked The jug in which he carried the oil had up his jug, and with a light heart and rapid ## Gravity vs. Folly.

It was said by Dr. Paley that he who is not a fool half the time, is a fool all the time. forward, and almost all giving more than why it was properly and lawfully his. The reproached by a very dull preacher with the himself, he was fairly ashamed, and again druggist ought not to have made the mis- exclamation, "how can a man who preaches threw down a piece of money on the table, take, and would justly lose by his careless- like you, talk in such a trifling manner ?" saying, "Dar, take dat." It was a val- ness. To Mr. W. a quarter of a dollar was he replied, "there, brother, is the difference uable piece of gold, but it was given so but a trifle, and would never be missed; between us-you talk your nonsense in the Ill-temperedly, that the man at the table whilst to him, it was a large amount. Be. pulpit; I talk mine out of the pulpit." The eminent Dr. South, being in the midst of a frolic on one occasion, and seeing a digniresolutions, but not accordin' to de last; not returning at first; and then, he would fied, unbending acquaintance approaching and again the old man took up his coin. be losing too much time, and displease his exclaimed, "stop! we must be grave now, Correges.-There are in the United oldest is Yale College, at New Haven, Ct. but I wont have them in the house." established in 1700. The University of Pennsylvania, 1749. Brown University, at Providence, R. J., 1764. The number colleges is about 650,000, of which Harvard University has 70,000.

he can not offord to take a paper, we are its feasibility and practicability. The Sardi-

Old England's Worthies.

BY THOMAS MACKELLAR.

By SYDNEY-HAMPDEN-CHOMWELL, on the feld And glorious MHLTON, who a pen did wield

(Like the rant prophet's) fall upon this land, Which ower its freedom partly to his hand, That dared betimes the fearless Truth to write-Would show their giants. I wish in vain, I fear Thus Angels sometimes on the Earth appear,

Thou hadet thy faults: but who, alas! is clear?

Bidding against his Wife.

males by a long counter, upon which the hour." elib-tongued functionary walked to and fro It would indeed be a glorious thing if we houses.

Turning to the other side he commenced quebed on the finale.

"Two fifty," nodded the man. "Thank ye, sir; going at two fifty." "Three!" screamed the woman.

"Four." replied the man. "Gin the fifty," said the auctioner.tur ng to the woman, with a half suppressed smile on his small, sober visage.

A nod from the woman. ble the money."

Smith (not John) for five dollars." "Smith !" cried the woman, "what, my catch a glance at him. "Why, you good-

Tunnel through the Alps!

To complete the line of Rail-road from ingly. Boulonge in France to Venice in Italy, the snow capped Alps would have to be pierced with a tunnel thro' their rocky ribs. After zines, relating to the art, but here we have your lazy locomotives and strambouts. At sunset, some of the men auggested full history of the subject, commencing with the ancient artificial flying pigeon of Archylus, the Greek, and ending with the most recent experiments.

Navigating the Atmosphere.

copied the attention of many eminent men in almost every age of the world's history, but it was not not until a recent period that gaged the attention of the scher Bishop of irregular. mind, conceived the project of sending up not Cuff. ascending power became greater, and from T.-No, not Duff. they constructed one of a capacity of 23, Dauf, hey? 000 cubic feet, and with it they sent up T .- No; D-o-u g-h spells Doe. one of gigantic dimensions, viz., 74 feet My beef-steak was very Toe. high and 48 in diameter. With this bal- T .- O no; you should say tuff earth. He made several ascents, and on It is beautiful language; ver' fine. a few miles from where they started. This you call General Taylor? Raugh and endurance .- Maine Furmer. formed an epoch in the history of serial Ready? No! certainment it is R. w and navigation, and the fame of the Montgolfi- Ready 1 ers soon spread over Europe and reached T .- No! R-o-u-g-h spells Ruff. America. Although hydrogen gas was F .- Ruff, ha! Let me not forget. discovered long before the Montgolfiers R-o-u g-h is Ruff, B o-u-g h is Buff, ha ! made their balloon, and its utility to the T .- No; Bow. purposes of arial navigation had been pre- F .- Ah! 'tis ver' simple language, but applied for that purpose, except for experi- What you call him? ents in the lecture room: but no sooner | en Mone was the success of the Montgolfier balloon spread abroad, than the virtues of hydrogen became apparent, and it was firmly beheved by many at that time that balloons would soon be as common as crows.

could career through the region above at As an instance of what some of them gone, "to a lodge in some vast wilderness," day, or Molly Stark is a widow !" all that we would have to do, would be to Pr. Fitch, in his survey and history o husband?" raising herself on tip-toe to Hoboken, and which was propelled with proaching, hastened towards and captured al flight by steam, we will regret it exceed- speedily bring out an overwhelming force

Mr. Wise has made a great number of return to Fort William Henry.

mation from Encyclopædias and Maga- the rate of 100 miles per hour, laughing at that the entire command devolved on Stark.

a book on the subject, written by one who crawling away below us as things good that they ought to make their escape before has made many terial voyages, and who enough for a more benighted age. - [Scien- the piercing cold of winter's night slotted relate his own adventures. It embraces a tific American. A Frenchman Studying English

Frenchman .- Tres bien, Huff: and Snuff you spall S-n-o-u-g-h, ha? any success was promised to an art which Tutor .- O no; Snutl is S n u double f. bill-side, sleeping the sleep that knows no warmed the imagination of Bacon, and en. The fact is, the words in ough are a little waking. Forty eight of the Rangers re-Chester. In 1782, there had at ancient . F.- Very good. 'Tis beautiful language. dragged themselves through the woods

Tutor .- Huff.

Avignon, in France, two brothers, young H-o-u-g-h is Huff. I will remember; and land snow, the live-long night, reaching men, named Stephen and Joseph Montgol. C -o-u-g-h is Cuff. I have one had Cuff, ah! the shares of Lake George in the morning. fier, who, being of an ingenious turn of T .- No, that is wrong. We say Kauff, All were quite exhausted with their fa-small balloons inflated with ranified air, F .- Kaugh, eh bien. Hoff and Kauf, advance faither on font. and by many experiments they discovered and parnones moi, sair, how you call. Stark hereupon generously offered to some animals in a basket. The voyage F.-Doe! It is ver fine, wonderful was successful, and this induced to construct language: it is Doe; and T-o-u g-b, Toe, out with them to return to his comrades, from a brave and good Frenchman, named F .- Tuff De Dable! And the thing finally he drew a londed sleigh back to the M. Pilatre de Rozier, volunteered to make farmer uses, how you call P-lo-u.g-h ? Fort, reaching there in the evening.

s the 21st May, 1783, he, along with the T .- You are still wrong my friend. It the remainder of the time in traveling over viously suggested, yet it was never really. I have bad what you call E-n o-u g-b, ha?

Hardy Men of Olden Time

A few days ago, I chanced to stumble Napoleon frightened many an English ma- It can not be denied that the mea who into an auction sale of damaged dry goods, tron, when he threatened to cross the chan-sustained the labors and encountered the where the biddings were "spirited," and the nel with his Boulogne army in balloons. privations and dangers of the Revolutionary large crowd were vicing with each other But his "paper walls," never ventured to War, were physically a much stronger in their offers, when a pair of blankets baffle Old England's "wooden walls;" nor and hardier race than the present; we however, caught up the highest, which was day, than they were then. It is the opin- the frame, and knit together the sinews, I think, a dollar, from a female who ion of Mr. Wise, however, that ballooning so as to enable them to endure exposure semed determined to have them at any is about half a century ahead of the age, and hardships of no ordinary character, price, when, ere he could say "Going," a and if the spirit of mechanical progress Their food was coarser and more submale voice cried out, "Dollar fifty," from keeps pace with the onward march of intel stantial, their clothing coarser and not so lect, he says, "our children will travel to delicate, and their houses more open and "Two dollars," echoed the woman, el- any part of the globe without the inconve- airy. There were no fine and super super howing her way through the dense mass nience of smoke, sparks and sea-sickness, fine bolts to their mills, no buffulo robes to feet, and no turnaces and nir-tights in their such a rate, but our dreams are much more could endure, we will relate an incident in and amusing "figures of speech," till he would be content with ten miles an hour, who, when told, before the buttle of Benonly let us have the wings, an independent mington, that he must address the soldiers, pair. Then, when like Jereminh, of old, compressed his speech into the following we were troubled in mind and sighed for exclamation; "Fellow soldiers! vonder the wings of a dove to fly away and be- are the red coats! we must whip them to-mount and be off, "over mountain and sea." Washington county in New York, states Such things would be very pleasant-eve- that Stark was, in 1757, a lieutenant in rybody would be rejoiced if such things company of New Hampshire Rangers "Four fifty, I'm offered; gin me five ! could be done and many strong arguments under the command of Cant. (afterwards Come, don't be afraid; they're worth dou- may be used respecting the probability of Major) Rogers. It was during the second such things being yet accomplished, but French war, as it is called in history. It "Yes, and that's all," said the thele not, in our opinion, safely, conveniently this winter, Maj. R. was ordered with sevnor economically, by any "ærial vessel," enty-five of his men, on a reconneitering "Sold !" cried the dealer in hammers, that we have ever yet seen, the opinion of expedition down Lake George. Traveling, almost bursting with laughter, "to Capt. geronauts to the contrary notwithstanding now on the ice, and now on snow shoes. The "revolvidal spindle," of Bobiohn, they on the third day crossed to Lake which was in the course of construction at Champlain, and seeing some sleds ap two small steam engines, some time this a part of them. From the prisoners they summer, has been sadly damaged by the learned there was a large force at Ticon venting the balloon from enjoying her zeri- would convey intelligence which would in pursuit, Rogers directed an immediate successful derial voyages, and his book is On their way back, tramping the snow one of great service to science as a histor- in single file, as the foremost men gained five years'study on the subject, the Chevalier ical and scientific work on the construction the summit of a hill, they usexpectly found Whenever we hear a man (a man?) say Henry Maux has reported on the project of balloons, and the manner of navigating themselves close upon two hundred of the them. There is one prominent and useful enemy, who were drawn up in a semi-circle fact brought to light, viz. that ballooning is to receive them. The Rangers recoiled by that title, the Legislature having passed to do without it. A man who is really and in all likelihood it will be attempted if a conservator of health-wrial navigation before the fire that blazed in their very a bill changing its name to Rockton. The and the look of pity were strangely blended The next corner brought John a third too poor to take a paper, is like a person so not completed. It is expected that it will

This we believe is a new idea, but a cor- summit of another hill. They here formed rect one-and one agreeing with science their line, and firmly stood, in snow four The first complete work upon this sub- and reason, but as these things trouble us feet in depth, and repelled every attack of ect, is now on our table, by John Wise, a not personally, we have a longing eye but the enemy from two o'clock till nightfall, veteran aronaut, of Lancaster, Pennsylva- weak faith, to mount the serial ship, cleav- Rogers, wounded upon the head, and by a pia. Hitherto we have had scraps of infor- ing our way the "blue etherial sky," at builet through his wrist, was so disabled upon them; but Sterk, standing himself where the bullets fell thickest, and knowing that their safety depended upon main-Frenchman .- My good friend, I have taining their ground till after dark, threatmet with one grand difficulty-one very ened to shoot the first man that attempted The subject of navigating the air has oc. strange word. How you call Ho-u-g-h to fly. Evening came, and the French now chandened the combat and withdrew. leaving half their number scattered among the trampled and blood-stained snow of the mained unwogeded, and the company now tigues, and the wounded were unable to travel onwards with two others to fort William Henry, at the opposite end of the this they went on increasing their size, till F .- Not Duff : Ah I understand, it is Lake, and obtain sleds for conveying the wounded. He accordingly departed, and reached the Fort in the evening. The sieds being procured, he immediately set traveling all night, and coming at their bivoune upon the following morning. And for nearly four hours in hot combat, and the snows and ice. Dr. Fitch very corcent into the regial regions, rising to the F .- Plant Wonderful language ! I really observes that we effeminate men of height of 3,000 feet, and made a success- shall understand ver' soon. Plow, Doe, the present day can scarcely credit that ful excursion over Paris, and finally landed Kauf, and one more. R-o u-g-h; what any human frame was ever capable of such

Why Women are Unhealthy.

Many of the physical evils-the want of vigor, the inaction of system, the langour and hysterical affections-which are so prevalent among the delicate young w men of the present day, may be traced to a want of well-trained mental power, and well-exercised self-control, and to an absence of fixed hab is of employment. Real cultivation of the intellect-earnest exereise of the moral powers-the enlargement of the mind by the acquirement of knowl-[Leaves Conex.] edge, and the strengthening of its capabilities for effort, for endurance of inevitable evils, and for energy in combatting such as they may overcome, are the ends which become infirmity. The power of the mind over the body is immense. Let that powwere put up, and a dozen bids were instant- does it appear that we are any nearer "a mean, taking them as a whole. Their er be called forth; let it be trained and ly raised for them. The puzzled auctioner, system" of serial navigation at the present mode of life was well calculated to harden exercised, and vigor both of mind and body will be the result. There is a homely, unpolished saying, that " it is better to wear out than rust out;" but it tells a plain truth ; rust consumes faster than use. Better, a million times better-to work hard, even to the shortening of existence. than to sleep and eat away this precious gift of life, giving no other cognizance of of females, who were separated from the and at the rate of one hundred miles per their sleighs, no India rubbers to their its possession. By work or industry, of whatever kind it may be, we give a practical acknowledgment of the value of life, of its high intentions, of its manifold duties. Earnest, active industry is a living hymn anew his stereotyped vocabulary of choice moderate than those of friend Wise. We the life of General Stark, the same General of praise, a never-failing source of happiness; it is obedience, for it is God's great law of moral existance.-[The Physical Training of Cirls at School, by Madame

Death of an Ancient Worthy. The death of Mr. Samuel Baldwin, in Newark, N. J., a few days since, aged 96 years, is recorded in the papers of that city. He was born in that town in the year 1754, and descended from one of the earliest setiers. He was the fellow student, in the College of New Jersey, (Princeton,) of James Madison, Alexander Hamilton, Anron Burr, Philip Freneau, and others who ose to distinction. Mr. Baldwin was in Philadelphia, and among those who first heard the Declaration of Indepndence proclaimed from Old Independence Hall. At one time he taught a Classical Academy t Charleston, where he became acquainted with Col. Isaac Hayne, whose execution by the British, excited the indignation of the entire American people. After the copture of Charleston, he was taken prisoner by the British, but refusing to take the oath of allegiance to the Crown, he was obliged to leave the place. He died as he had lived, a worthy communicant of the Presbyterian Church.

The village of Little Falls, Herkimer county, N. Y., is no longer to be known